Can you protect the caravan across the wastelands?

You're a mercenary in the post-apocalypse. You and some others have been hired to protect a caravan from marauders and psychos as it drives across a barren wasteland.

Caravan is a competitive deck-building game of dark future mayhem. Players must protect the caravan, but are competing for reputation in the process - and trying to wreck the names of your fellow mercenaries!

- > A reputation system that keeps players at each others throats.
- > Deckbuilding with a focus on combat and interactivity.
- > Apocalyptic action for 2-5 players.
